Solution: She just needed to measure the tangent to the inner circle to compute the area of the carousel deck to be 225 π square feet. Can you figure out why this works?