Get Involved!

The mission: Educating and Empowering Citizens to Live More Sustainably

The opportunity:

The City of Holland, League of Women Voters, Grand Valley State University, Hope College, and Herrick District Library invite you to join us in a new series of educational events with information and dialog around sustainability. The series will be called "Living Sustainably Along the Lakeshore." The goal of each event in the series is to provide information to help the average citizen live more sustainably in the greater Holland area. This series of free events is planned and organized by the above named collaborating organizations, with support from additional area organizations working in areas related to sustainability called Endorsing Partner organizations.

Ways to become involved:

- Join our email list by signing up at one of our events
- Follow us on Facebook
- Check our website: www.livingsustainablyalongthelakeshore.org
- Ask your relevant organization to join us as an Endorsing Partner organization

We seek Endorsing Partner organizations to support our efforts in the following ways:

- Agree to share word of series events with constituents in the best manner they see fit
- Share expertise with our committee on upcoming topics relevant to the group's mission
- Recommend potential topics to the committee
- Give permission for our group to add the organization's name to the list of Endorsing Partner organizations on our publicity

Endorsing Partner organizations have the following opportunities:

- Assistance demonstrating the depth and breadth of sustainability in our community
- Opportunity to network with others working for sustainability in our community
- Increased exposure / greater awareness of each organization in our community
- Advocacy for each organization's mission

Please consider involvement with Living Sustainably Along the Lakeshore!

We look forward to educating & empowering the Holland area to become a more sustainable community!
