

DEAN OF THE CHAPEL

The Hinga-Boersma Dean of the Chapel is responsible for leading an established spiritual life program at Hope College. The college desires this person to have the mind of a scholar, the heart of a pastor, and the courage of a leader. This person must be or be willing to be ordained in the Reformed Church in America.

Major Functions

1. To be an articulate and compelling spokesperson for the Christian dimension of Hope.
2. To administer a thrice-weekly chapel program and a weekly “Gathering” service on Sunday evenings. Preaching regularly is an expectation.
3. To supervise a professional ministry team.
4. To nurture spiritual relationships with students, faculty, and staff.
5. To preach, speak, and write regularly in area churches, on other campuses, and in conferences/retreats so as to enrich others and heighten Hope’s visibility in Christian and academic circles.
