

THE OIKOS CONVERSATION

A DIALOGUE ON FOOD, FAITH & JUSTICE IN WEST MICHIGAN

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2016 8:30AM-4:30PM

/ Vision + Mission /

The Oikos Conversation will be a gathering to have honest and transparent dialogue about the complex and unfolding relationship between sustainable agriculture, faith, food and justice in West Michigan. The mission of this gathering is to honor God by fostering community awareness and action to better serve our neighbors and the land.

The dialogue will advance a Christian discussion of emerging issues and challenges including:

- the agrarian ethos of the Bible
- the global agrifood system
- Christian perspective on addressing issues of poverty, charity, and empowerment

/ Format /

This conference will include a series of short-talks / presentations / and a panel discussion from key voices in the region

Location: Graves Hall, Hope College, Holland, Michigan
