ADVANCING EQUITY

May 15, 2018

Hope College, Holland, Michigan

The 2018 Summit on Race and Inclusion will be a day-long event featuring seven nationally-recognized experts in the field of racial equity and inclusion. The presenters will provide audiences with insights and strategies for promoting inclusive practices across all sectors of business and society. Our keynote speaker will be the inspiring Dr. Joy DeGruy, whose internationally respected research on the residual legacy of trauma and stress, especially as it relates to race, will set the tone for the day.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Joy DeGruy

Breakout Sessions

The Summit will also include six sector-specific breakout sessions. Attendees will have the opportunity to select two of these sessions to learn detailed information relevant to their areas of professional or personal interest.

Breakout Sessions include:

Business – Enrica Ruggs, Ph.D., University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Community – Lucius Couloute, Prison Policy Initiative

Education – H. Gerald Campano, Ph.D., University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education

Faith – Marcia Mount Schoop, M.Div., Ph.D., Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Asheville, NC

Gov't/Policy – Rachel Godsil, Perception Institute

Health – Carmen Green, M.P.H., National Birth Equity Collaborative

Register online at EthnicDiversity.org. The registration fee of $75 includes access to the keynote speaker and two sector-specific breakout sessions. Morning refreshments and lunch included.
